

Job Posting

Preschool Special Educator

Working in the Wellesley Public School Preschool (PAWS) the successful candidate will be responsible for: managing a caseload of students on the Autism Spectrum (and the paraprofessionals working with them in sub-separate and inclusion classrooms); providing accommodations and modifications according to each student's IEP; attending meetings; conducting evaluations; and providing direct teaching to children in a combination of inclusion and sub-separate environments. Seeking applicants with some or all of the following qualifications: Master's degree in Special Education; background in Early Childhood Education; Background in Applied Behavior Analysis; experience working with children on the Autism Spectrum; experience using the VBMAPP and/or ACE curriculum.

Please contact:

Rebecca Zieminski
Director of Early Childhood
Wellesley Public Schools, Wellesley Massachusetts Preferred Pronouns: she, her, hers zieminskir@wellesleyps.org
781-446-6222 phone